a. Read the story carefully. List the actions of a good citizen and a bad citizen.

Yesterday, Mrs Saud went to the market. She went there in the morning. She carried her umbrella with her. There was a bench in front of a jewellery shop. She sat on it. A white car came and stopped in front of the shop. A man got off the car. He had a cap on his head and a scarf round his face and neck. He was tall, thin and carried a big bag. He threw a big stone at the window of the jewellery shop. The glass pane broke. The man quickly jumped in through the hole. He put a number of gold chains and bangles into his bag. Then he rushed towards his car. Mrs Saud saw all this. As the man came near the bench she pushed her umbrella in front. The man tripped and fell. "Thief! Thief!" shouted Mrs Saud. Just then a police van came. Two police man ran up and caught the thief red-handed. Meanwhile the shopkeeper also came along. The policeman told him the whole story. The shopkeeper collected his gold ornaments. Then he went up to Mrs Saud. "Thank you, madam," he said. "You're brave and clever." He took her inside the shop. Giving her a gold ring he said, "This is my way of saying thank you to you." Mrs Saud smiled, thanked the shopkeeper but she didn't take the gold ring. "I'm a good citizen and a good citizen is not paid for being one."
