Notes from E-Marking Centre on SSC-II Islamiyat Annual Examinations 2025

Introduction

This document has been produced for the teachers and candidates of Secondary School Certificate (SSC) Part II Islamiyat. It contains comments on candidates' responses to the 2025 SSC-II Examination indicating the quality of the responses and highlighting their relative strengths and weaknesses.

E-Marking Notes

This includes overall comments on candidates' performance on every question and some specific examples of candidates' responses that support the mentioned comments. Please note that the descriptive comments represent an overall perception of the better and weaker responses as gathered from the e-marking session. However, the candidates' responses shared in this document represent some specific example(s) of the mentioned comments.

Teachers and candidates should be aware that examiners may ask questions that address the Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs) in a manner that requires candidates to respond by integrating knowledge, understanding and application skills they have developed during the course of study. Candidates are advised to read and comprehend each question carefully before writing the response to fulfill the demand of the question.

Candidates need to be aware that the marks allocated to the questions are related to the answer space provided on the examination paper as a guide to the length of the required response. A longer response will not in itself lead to higher marks. Candidates need to be familiar with the command words in the SLOs which contain terms commonly used in examination questions. However, candidates should also be aware that not all questions will start with or contain one of the command words. Words such as 'how', 'why' or 'what' may also be used. It is imperative to refer to the command word guide available on AKU-EB website for understanding the expectations of the command word.

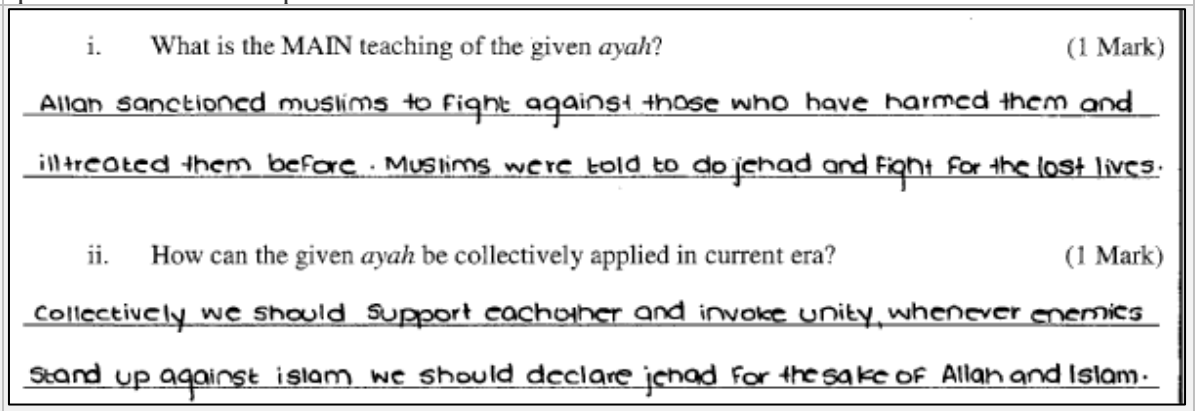

General Observations

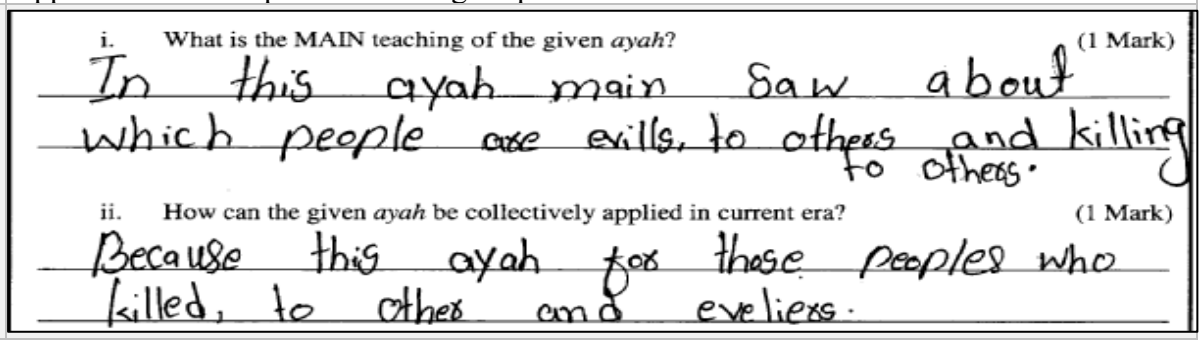

The overall performance of the entire cohort in the examination indicates that the majority of candidates used their time effectively by offering relevant and focused responses that attempted to address the questions as instructed. Their responses demonstrated relevance and corresponded with the requirements. However, the candidates seemed challenged in the questions related to Battles. It was also observed that candidates struggled to construct their responses as per the command words used in the questions.

Note: Candidates' responses shown in this report have not been corrected for grammar, spelling, format, or information.

DETAILED COMMENTS

Constructed Response Questions (CRQs)

Question No. 1a
Question Text	أُذِنَ لِلَّذِينَ يُقَٰتَلُونَ بِأَنَّهُمْ ظُلِمُوا۟ ۚ وَإِنَّ ٱللَّهَ عَلَىٰ نَصْرِهِمْ لَقَدِيرٌ ۙ (Al-Hajj: 39) With reference to the given ayah, answer the following questions: i. What is the MAIN teaching of the given ayah? (1 Mark) ii. How can the given ayah be collectively applied in current era? (1 Mark)
SLO No.	5.2.6
SLO Text	Discuss the application of these moral teachings and values in their individual as well as collective lives mentioned in sub- topic 5.2.
Max Marks	2
Cognitive Level	A*
Checking Hints	i. Give ONE mark for writing the MAIN teaching of the given ayah. ii. Give ONE for collectively stating the applications of the given ayah (TWO required).
Overall Performance	Overall, the candidates found this question moderately challenging. While a considerable proportion managed to present clear and structured responses, many others struggled to demonstrate full understanding, with a notable number securing only 1 mark. Their responses reflected partial knowledge of the main teaching and limited application of the given ayah.
Description of Better Responses	In better responses, candidates demonstrated a clear understanding of both components of the question. For the first part, they identified the MAIN teaching of the given ayah as the divine permission for armed struggle (Jihad by the sword) with the purpose of eradicating cruelty, injustice, and oppression from society. They explained that this teaching reflects the Qur'anic emphasis on establishing justice and protecting the rights of the oppressed. In addressing the second part of the question, candidates effectively linked the teaching to its collective applications in contemporary life. They mentioned the moral and civic responsibility to remain prepared to defend one's country against aggression, prioritising the safeguarding of humanity over personal interests. They also highlighted the duty to protect others from oppression, whether at the local, national, or global level. Furthermore, they suggested fostering unity among people as a means of preventing societal fragmentation, as well as initiating awareness campaigns against cruelty and injustice to promote a more compassionate and ethical social order.
Image of Better Response	 i. What is the MAIN teaching of the given ayah? (1 Mark) Allah sanctioned muslims to fight against those who have harmed them and illtreated them before. Muslims were told to do jehad and fight for the lost lives. ii. How can the given ayah be collectively applied in current era? (1 Mark) Collectively we should support eachother and invoke unity, whenever enemies stand up against islam we should declare jehad for the sake of Allah and Islam.
Description of Weaker Responses	In weaker responses, candidates demonstrated a limited understanding of the MAIN teaching of the given ayah. Instead of identifying it as the divine permission for armed struggle (Jihad by the sword) to eliminate cruelty and oppression from society, they either provided vague statements or misinterpreted the central theme altogether. Similarly, in the second part of the question, candidates were unable to present the correct collective applications of Jihad as intended in the context. Instead of linking it to defending the country, safeguarding humanity, protecting the oppressed, or initiating campaigns against injustice, many responses shifted towards unrelated themes. Examples included the application of spiritual purification (tazkiyah al-nafs) or fostering brotherhood in society concepts that, while valuable in Islam, were not directly connected to the practical application of the specific teaching in question.

Any Additional Suggestion:
Whenever teachers teach the ayaat (related to Jihad), it is recommended that teachers use a two-column chart in the classroom: one column for the main teaching and another for its applications. Including relevant examples from Islamic history and current scenarios will further enhance students' ability to accurately connect the verse's teaching with its practical implications.

Question No. 1b
Question Text	مَنْ قَتَلَ نَفْسًا بِغَيْرِ نَفْسٍ اَوْ فَسَادٍ فِي الْاَرْضِ فَكَاَنَّمَا قَتَلَ النَّاسَ جَمِيْعًا ... (Al-Maidah: 32) With reference to the given ayah, state any THREE practical applications to prevent crime in the current era.

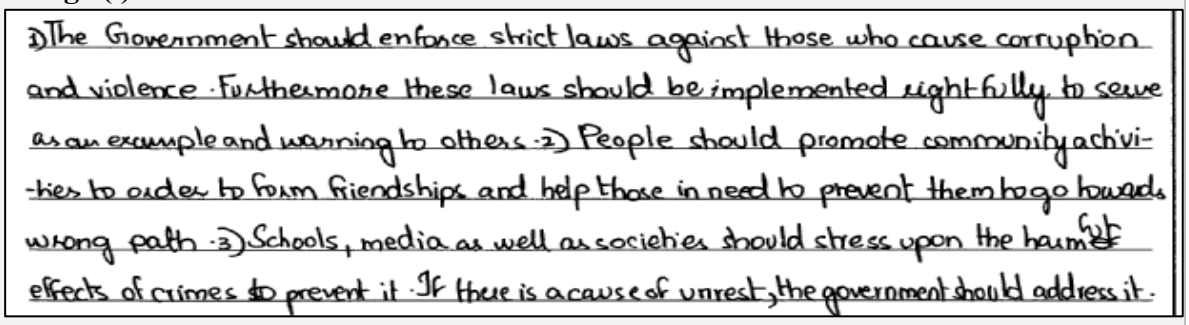

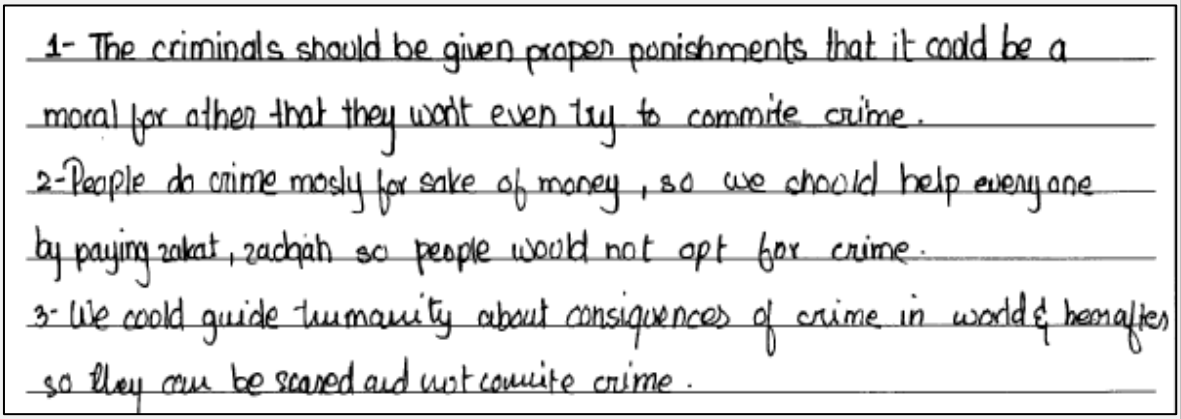

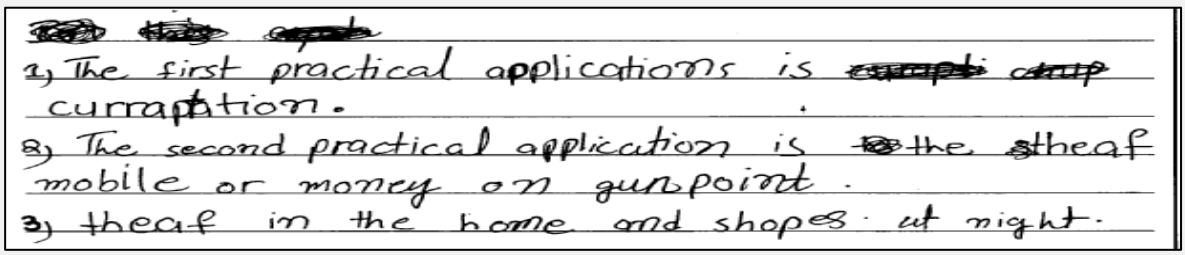

SLO No.	5.2.6
SLO Text	Discuss the application of these moral teachings and values in their individual as well as collective lives mentioned in sub- topic 5.2.
Max Marks	3
Cognitive Level	A
Checking Hints	Give ONE mark for collectively writing the applications to prevent crime (THREE required).
Overall Performance	Overall, candidates performed well in this question, with many demonstrating a clear understanding of the theme by linking it to the prevention of crime in the contemporary era. Their responses reflected awareness of the relevance of Islamic teachings in addressing modern social challenges.
Description of Better Responses	In better responses, candidates suggested a range of measures aimed at preventing crime in contemporary society. These included the strict implementation of laws, improvement of the judicial system, and ensuring the fair and timely provision of justice. They also recommended the formulation of effective rules and regulations to deter criminal activities and bringing oppressors to justice without delay. Other suggestions included creating employment opportunities, enforcing prescribed Shariah punishments, and promoting both secular and religious education. Furthermore, students emphasised the importance of providing children with proper upbringing and moral training, as well as initiating public awareness campaigns to discourage criminal behaviour.
Images of Better Responses	Image (i)  1)The Government should enforce strict laws against those who cause corruption and violence. Furthermore these laws should be implemented rightfully to serve as an example and warning to others. 2) People should promote community activities to order to form friendships and help those in need to prevent them to go towards wrong path. 3) Schools, media as well as societies should stress upon the harmful effects of crimes to prevent it. If there is a cause of unrest, the government should address it. Image (ii)  1- The criminals should be given proper punishments that it could be a moral for other that they won't even try to commite crime. 2- People do crime mosly for sake of money, so we should help everyone by paying zakat, zachah so people would not opt for crime. 3- We could guide humanity about consiquences of crime in world & hereafter so they can be scared and not commite crime.
Description of Weaker Responses	Despite the overall positive responses, few candidates were unable to provide relevant answers to the question regarding crime prevention. Their responses reflected a misunderstanding of the required context, as they focused on unrelated political or theological issues rather than practical measures to curb crime. Examples included statements such as: Jihad against the infidels should be mandatory, Israeli products should be boycotted, Muslim unity should be established against the infidels, and those who kill unjustly will go to hell. While these points may hold significance in other discussions, they did not directly address the specific theme of preventing crime in the contemporary societal framework.

Any Additional Suggestion:

When teachers explain the applications of selected Qur'anic ayaat, they should address multiple dimensions, including key vocabularies, main themes, moral values, interpretations, and both individual and collective applications. Teachers may adopt strategies such as discussion-based learning, where students critically analyze the meanings and applications of the ayaat in groups, and case-study methods, where real-life scenarios are connected to Qur'anic guidance, enabling learners to see the relevance of the teachings in modern contexts.

Question No. 2a
Question Text	Translation: "Whoever performed Hajj for the sake of Allah and then did not speak ill of words and abuse, nor did he commit any sin, then he will return from Hajj like the day his mother gave birth to him." (Hadith: 16) According to the given Hadith (translation), why has the believer been told that "he will return from Hajj like the day his mother gave birth to him"? Describe in any TWO points.
SLO No.	6.2.2
SLO Text	Explain key messages of the Ahadith mentioned in sub-topic 6.2.
Max Marks	2
Cognitive Level	U
Checking Hints	Give ONE mark for writing the objects of the Hadith (TWO required).
Overall Performance	Overall, candidates performed satisfactorily in this question. The majority were able to partially do this question . They recognised that the statement, "he will return from Hajj like the day his mother gave birth to him", refers to the complete forgiveness of sins and the believer's spiritual renewal but were unable to describe two points against it.
Description of Better Responses	In better responses, candidates provided a variety of explanations reflecting their understanding of the Hadith's meaning. Some stated that during Hajj, the gathering of people is extremely large, and therefore, only those who exhibit patience and forbearance in such circumstances can be considered truly pure and cleansed. Others emphasised that all the pillars of Hajj should be performed with patience and forbearance, and that the moral discipline developed during Hajj should be demonstrated in practical life thereafter. Several candidates also drew an analogy between a newborn child innocent and free from sins and the pilgrim who returns from Hajj in a state of spiritual purity.
Image of Better Response	 • Performing Hajj with no sin and with pure heart, Allah removes every sin of that beliver even they are as much as sand in dessert. • When mothe gave birth to child, they are born with no sin, pure that's why Hajj with pure heart and so sin makes you like a new born
Description of Weaker Responses	It was noted in weaker responses, candidates did not fully comprehend the nature of the question. Their responses reflected a limited understanding of its core message. Examples included statements such as: by 'believer' is meant a Muslim, if we refrain from bad deeds, Allah Ta'ala will forgive us, a believer is one who obeys Allah Ta'ala, and the Hadith elaborates on the Sunnah, etc.
Image of Weaker Response	 - Hajj is the compulsory pillar of Islam and It is obligatory once time in a lifetime of muslim. - Hajj is the biggest virtue.

Any Additional Suggestion:
When teaching Hadith, teachers should ensure that, alongside explaining its meaning, they also convey its objectives. To achieve this, they may use strategies such as contextual analysis, where students study the background and intended purpose of the Hadith to understand its relevance, and application-based activities, where learners identify situations in their own lives (such as honesty in exams, respect for parents, fair dealings in trade, or kindness towards peers) and practice how the objectives of the Hadith can be applied in those contexts.

Question No. 2b

Question Text	Translation: "Beware of suspicion, for suspicion is the worst of false tales." (Hadith: 25) In the light of the given Hadith (translation), suggest any TWO ways to avoid suspicion.
SLO No.	6.2.4
SLO Text	Apply the understandings of the Ahadith mentioned in sub-topic 6.2 for the moral and social lives.
Max Marks	2
Cognitive Level	A
Checking Hints	Give one mark for writing 'to avoid suspicion' (TWO required).
Overall Performance	Overall, candidates performed remarkably well. They not only understood the Hadith but also suggested various effective ways to avoid suspicion. Their responses clearly reflected a strong comprehension of the concept, demonstrating that their understanding regarding the avoidance of suspicion was commendable.
Description of Better Responses	In better responses, candidates suggested a variety of ways to avoid suspicion, such as: evaluating a person's character rather than their appearance, avoiding ostentation, performing every action solely for the sake of Allah Ta'ala, refraining from arrogance and envy, avoiding showing off, ensuring that worship is performed with the intention of pleasing Allah Ta'ala, maintaining a positive opinion (حسنِ ظن) instead of suspicion, encouraging others to adopt positive thinking, refraining from overthinking about others or forming opinions without reason, avoiding negative thoughts, learning to forgive others for their mistakes, refraining from haste in judgment, and refraining from making premature judgments about others.

Image of Better Response
Description of Weaker Responses	It was noted in weaker responses that candidates did not fully comprehend the nature of the question. Some mentioned that one should recite Bismillah before starting any work, every task should be undertaken thoughtfully, and that one should always speak the truth. Others mentioned Salah (prayer) and Zakat should be offered on time, and that elders should be respected, etc.

Any Additional Suggestion:

When teachers discuss the applications of Hadith, it is important that they first ensure students thoroughly understand the Hadith itself. Observations shown that students who struggle to apply Hadith often lack a clear comprehension of its meaning and context. Therefore, a strong foundational understanding of the Hadith is essential before moving on to its practical applications. By focusing on ensuring that students grasp the Hadith fully, teachers can better prepare them to apply its teachings effectively in various aspects of their lives. This approach will enhance the students' ability to integrate Hadith into their personal and communal practices.

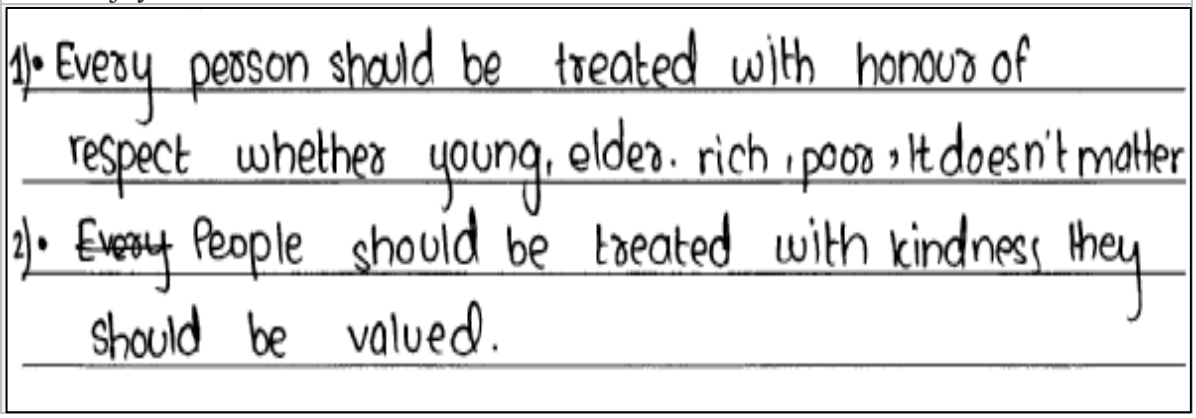

Question No. 3a
Question Text	Describe any THREE outcomes of the Battle of Uhud.
SLO No.	7.3.3
SLO Text	Explain the causes and events of important battles which took place during the lifetime of the Holy Prophet (PBUH), (Battle of Badar, Uhad, Ahzab, and Khayber);
Max Marks	3
Cognitive Level	U
Checking Hints	Give ONE mark for writing an outcome of the Battle of Uhud (THREE required). (TWO required).
Overall Performance	This question was focused on the outcomes of the Battle of Uhud. Candidates' responses were generally just satisfactory. Many candidates described situations and events that were related to other Battles rather than directly addressing the specific outcomes of Battle of Uhud.
Description of Better Responses	In better responses, candidates mentioned that the Battle ended without a decisive outcome, the Muslims did not fully follow the instructions of the Holy Prophet (PBUH), which resulted in both financial and human losses, The Quraish of Makkah were given further opportunity to strengthen their position, the Muslims sought forgiveness from Allah Ta'ala, the Holy Prophet (PBUH) provided the Companions (RA) with an opportunity to prepare for the future, Hazrat Hamzah (RA) was martyred, the blessed tooth of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) was broken, and a significant number of Muslims were martyred in this Battle.
Image of Better Response	1) It was a great lesson for Muslims. As now they learnt not to leave their positions till the very end of any war. 2) They Quraish felt pride and ignorant after winning the war and thought that they all more powerful than Muslims. 3) Muslims lost many of their important war leaders and Muhammad(S.A.W.W) was also ~~severe~~ severely injuried.
Description of Weaker Responses	In weaker responses, candidates confused Battle of Uhud with other Battles. They mentioned, Muslims suffered severe financial losses, The Holy Prophet (PBUH) ordered to dig trenches (Battle of Trench). These answers were not relevant to Battle of Uhud campaign, reflecting a misunderstanding of the historical context and details related to the question.
Images of Weaker Responses	(Image i) – Muslims defeated the entirety of their enemies. – Muslims in return got booty (camels, food, horses) that helped the Muslims for the survival. (Image ii) The outcomes of the Battle of Uhud were the weather was harsh and cold some of the people betrayed and the force were ~~#~~ less in number for the Battle.

These visual tools will help students gain a clearer and more accurate understanding of each battle's context and significance. By providing a structured visual representation, teachers can facilitate better comprehension and retention of the details and outcomes of each Battle, ensuring that students grasp the historical and strategic aspects more effectively.

Overall Performance	Overall, the candidates demonstrated excellent performance in this question. Their responses indicated a strong and well-developed understanding of the Seerat-un-Nabi (ﷺ).
Description of Better Responses	In better responses, candidates mentioned appropriate conduct with people in society, mentioning caring for one another's needs, visiting the sick, inviting each other, helping the underprivileged, treating others with kindness, offering assistance, and sharing in each other's joys and sorrows.
Image of Better Response

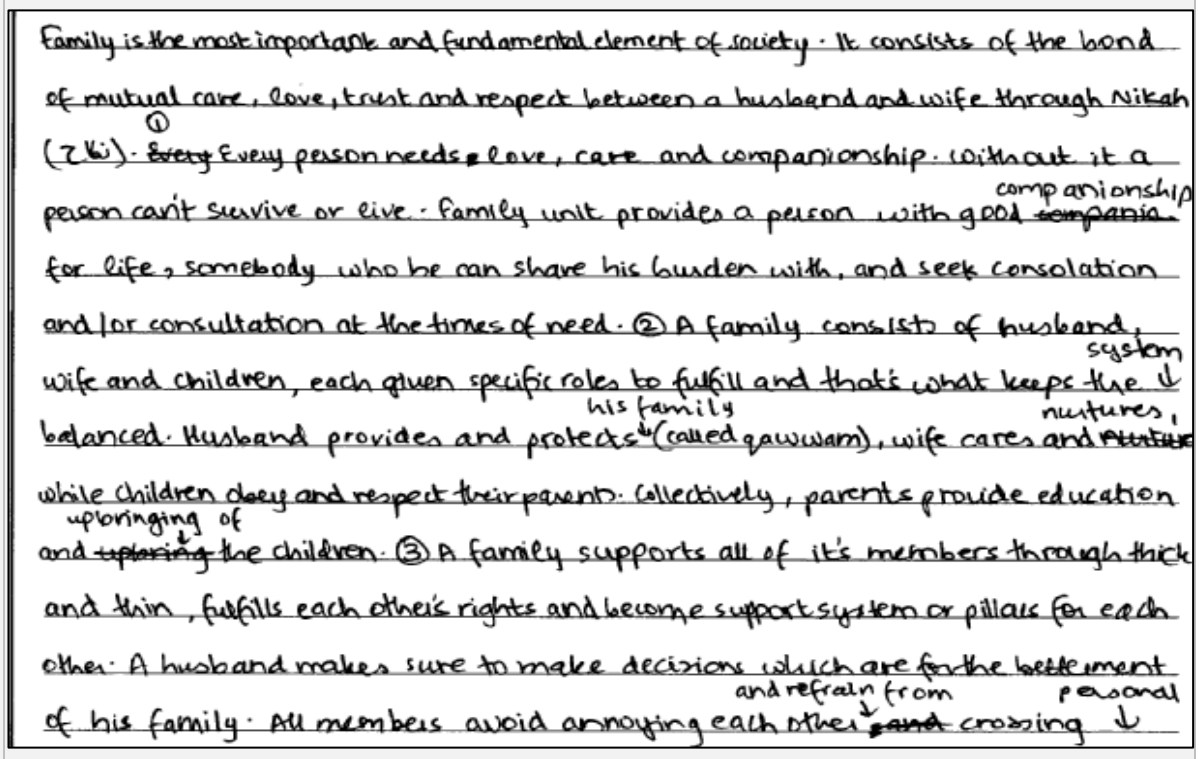

Description of Weaker Responses	A very small number of candidates were unable to answer this question. Overall, the most notable error observed was that candidates focused their responses on personal matters rather than addressing the societal aspect of the question. For example, some mentioned about performing Salah regularly, waking up early in the morning, or managing their own tasks independently, instead of discussing actions related to the community.

Question No. 4a
Question Text	Family is the most important and fundamental element of society. With reference to the given statement, explain the concept of family in Islam in THREE points.
SLO No.	7.6.2
SLO Text	Explain the concept of family life in Islam;
Max Marks	6
Cognitive Level	U
Checking Hints	Give ONE mark for writing the concept of family (THREE required). Give ONE mark for writing its explanation (THREE required).
Overall Performance	The majority of candidates selected Option 'a' for the extended response question. Part 'a' which related to the concept of family, the candidates who opted for this question struggled to score full marks.
Description of Better Responses	In better responses, candidates described the concept of family life in Islam as the fundamental unit and cornerstone of society. They emphasised that family relationships, particularly the bond between husband and wife through the sacred contract of Nikah, serve to protect individuals from immoral influences, provide emotional comfort, and ensure the continuation of lineage. Furthermore, they explained the importance of fulfilling mutual rights and responsibilities among family members, fostering harmony and stability. Candidates also highlighted the significant impact of a strong family structure on the wider community, noting that adherence to Islamic values within the family promotes moral integrity and social cohesion.
Images of Better Responses	Image (i)

Family is the most important and fundamental element of society. It consists of the bond of mutual care, love, trust and respect between a husband and wife through Nikah (ZKi). ① Every person needs love, care and companionship. without it a person can't survive or live. family unit provides a person with good companionship for life, somebody who he can share his burden with, and seek consolation and for consultation at the times of need. ② A family consists of husband, wife and children, each given specific roles to fulfill and that's what keeps the system balanced. Husband provides and protects his family (called qawwam), wife cares and nurtures, while children obey and respect their parents. collectively, parents provide education and uploringing of the children. ③ A family supports all of it's members through thick and thin, fulfills each other's rights and become support system or pillars for each other. A husband makes sure to make decisions which are for the betterment of his family. All members avoid annoying each other and refrain from personal crossing boundaries, while still noticing emotional and verbal cues, or body language of each other to provide assisstance when needed. They all respect each other and share things with another, building a bridge of trust and healthy communication between it's members, which goes on to result in a peaceful, harmonious and Islamic society as these positive families are the ones who make up a society, so more positive they are, more peaceful and content society will be, proving their fundamentality.

Image (ii)

Family life in Islam is a divinely ordained system which is built upon religion, love and mutual respect. Here are some points that explain the necessity of family life in Islam.

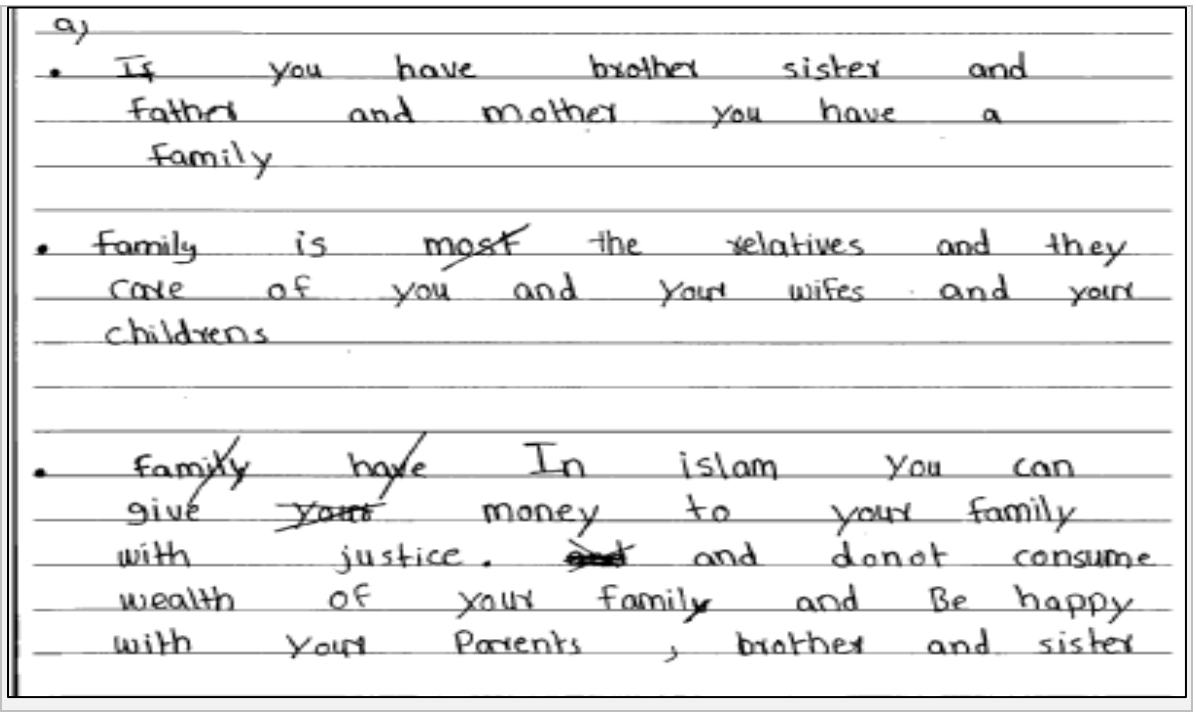

(i) Fulfillment of desires: Allah (S.W.T) made it halal for opposite genders to fulfill their intimate desires after marriage. This can only be done under the requirement of nikkah which is also encouraged to be done as soon as you reach puberty because then you might not commit zina or fall for fitnah

(ii) Generational Chain: Family life is also important for the continuation of mankind, because then when there will be no off-spring, Islam won't carry further and will demolish. In Islam and family life.

(iii) Emotional Support: Husband and wife are eachother's support whether it be physical or emotional as Allah said in the Quran: "They (the spouses) are garments for eachother." This is why it is encourage to get married as your family cannot give what your partner can.

END OF PAPER

Description of Weaker Responses	In weaker responses, candidates were unable to explicitly connect the concept of family to its status as a foundational element within Islamic teachings. While some responses mentioned maintaining good relations with relatives, showing respect to elders, and fulfilling responsibilities towards parents, these points were presented in a general moral context rather than being anchored in Qur'anic injunctions and Prophetic traditions. For instance, few candidates referred to emphasis on maintaining kinship ties (Sila-e-Rahm) found in authentic Hadith literature.

Image of Weaker Response

Any Additional Suggestion:

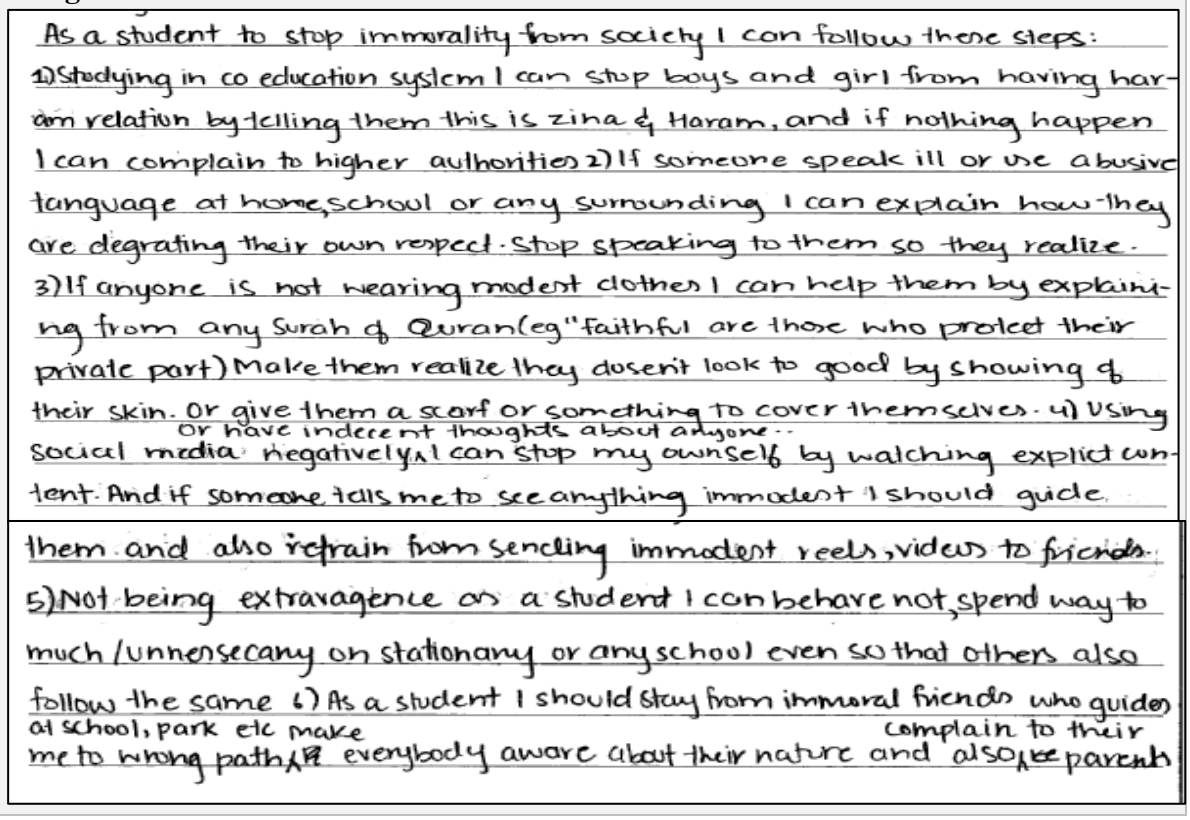

When teaching the concept of family, teachers should adopt the following approaches:

- Integration of Scriptural References: Ensure that the concept of family is taught in the light of the Qur'an and authentic Hadith, emphasizing its status as a divinely ordained institution and a foundational unit of Muslim society.

- Use of Visual Aids: Illustrate the structure, roles, and rights within a family using visual formats such as charts, diagrams, or mind maps to enable students to clearly grasp the Islamic framework of family life.

- Practical Application Tasks: Assign activities requiring students to identify relevant Qur'anic verses and Hadiths on family values, and explain their contemporary relevance, thereby promoting deeper engagement with the primary sources.

- Comparative Discussions: Facilitate discussions that compare the Islamic concept of family with modern societal trends, enabling students to critically appreciate the uniqueness and relevance of the Islamic perspective.

Question No. 4b
Question Text	What role can you play as a student to stop the spread of immorality in the society? Suggest any SIX methods.
SLO No.	7.6.4
SLO Text	Analyse the applications of modesty in our individual and collective life.
Max Marks	6
Cognitive Level	A
Checking Hints	Give ONE mark for writing one suggestion (SIX required).
Overall Performance	Though this question was opted by few candidates yet overall, most candidates provided well-organized and effective suggestions. Their responses demonstrated a clear understanding of the topic, offering practical strategies to enhance the atmosphere at home.
Description of Better Responses	In better responses, candidates envisioned a society free from immorality and presented insightful, practical suggestions to achieve it. They proposed promoting moral values through enhanced religious education and active preaching, adopting modesty in language and dress, and raising awareness via school morning presentations and social media platforms. Additionally, they recommended initiating awareness campaigns against immoral practices to safeguard the future of the coming generations. Some responses also stressed the importance of parental guidance, community-based mentoring programs, and collaboration between educational institutions and religious scholars. Such collective efforts, they argued, would not only counter immorality but also foster a culture of respect, empathy, and moral responsibility within society.
Image of Better Response	Image

As a student to stop immorality from society I can follow these steps:
1) Studying in co education system I can stop boys and girl from having haram relation by telling them this is zina & Haram, and if nothing happen I can complain to higher authorities 2) If someone speak ill or use abusive language at home, school or any surrounding I can explain how they are degrating their own respect. Stop speaking to them so they realize.
3) If anyone is not wearing modest clothes I can help them by explaining from any Surah of Quran (eg "faithful are those who protect their private part) Make them realize they doesn't look to good by showing of their skin. Or give them a scarf or something to cover themselves. 4) Using social media negatively, I can stop my ownself by watching explict content. And if someone tells me to see anything immodest I should guide them and also refrain from sending immodest reels, videos to friends.
Or have indecent thoughts about anyone..
5) Not being extravagence as a student I can behave not, spend way to much / unnessecary on stationary or any school even so that others also follow the same 6) As a student I should stay from immoral friends who guides me to wrong path, make everybody aware about their nature and also complain to their parents at school, park etc

Description of Weaker Responses	In weaker responses, candidates demonstrated difficulty in presenting methods in the form of concrete suggestions. Instead of offering diverse and practical approaches, they tended to repeat the same method across all suggested points, resulting in a lack of variety and depth in their responses. Furthermore, a number of candidates deviated from the requirement by providing descriptive accounts of immoralities rather than proposing actionable strategies to address them.

Annexure A: Pedagogies Used for Teaching the SLOs

Pedagogy: Storyboard
Description: A visual pedagogy that uses a series of illustrated panels to present a narrative, encouraging creativity and critical thinking. It helps learners organise ideas, sequence events, and comprehend complex concepts through storytelling.
Example: In a Literature class, students are tasked with creating storyboards to visually retell a novel. They draw key scenes, write captions, and present their stories to the class, enhancing their reading comprehension and fostering their imagination.

Pedagogy: Cause and Effect
Description: This pedagogy explores the relationships between actions and consequences. By analysing cause-and-effect relationships, learners develop a deeper understanding of how events are interconnected and how one action can lead to various outcomes.
Example: In a History class, students study the causes and effects of the Industrial Revolution. They research and discuss how technological advancements in manufacturing led to significant societal changes, such as urbanisation and labour reform movements.

Pedagogy: Fish and Bone
Description: A method that breaks down complex topics into main ideas (the fish) and supporting details (the bones). This visual approach enhances comprehension by highlighting essential concepts and their relevant explanations.
Example: During a Biology class on human anatomy, the teacher uses the fish and bone technique to teach about the human skeletal system. Teacher presents the main components of the human skeleton (fish) and elaborates on each bone's structure and function (bones).

Pedagogy: Concept Mapping
Description: An effective way to visually represent relationships between ideas. Learners create diagrams connecting key concepts, aiding in understanding the overall structure of a subject and fostering retention.
Example: In a Psychology assignment, students use concept mapping to explore the various theories of personality. They interlink different theories, such as Freud's psychoanalysis, Jung's analytical psychology, and Bandura's social-cognitive theory, to see how they relate to each other.

Pedagogy: Audio Visual Resources
Description: Incorporating multimedia elements like videos, images, and audio into lessons. This approach caters to different learning styles, making educational content more engaging and memorable.
Example: In a General Science class, the teacher uses a documentary-style video to teach about the solar system. The video includes stunning visual animations of the planets, interviews with astronomers, and background music, enhancing students' interest and understanding of space.

Pedagogy: Think, Pair, and Share
Description: A collaborative learning technique where students ponder a question or problem individually, then discuss their thoughts in pairs or small groups before sharing with the entire class. It fosters active participation, communication skills, and diverse perspectives.
Example: In a Literature in English class, the teacher poses a thought-provoking question about a novel's moral dilemma. Students first reflect individually, then pair up to exchange their opinions, and finally participate in a lively class discussion to explore different viewpoints.

Pedagogy: Questioning Technique (Socratic Approach)
Description: Based on Socratic dialogue, this method stimulates critical thinking by posing thought-provoking questions. It encourages learners to explore ideas, justify their reasoning, and discover knowledge through a process of inquiry.
Example: In an Ethics class, the instructor uses the Socratic approach to lead a discussion on the meaning of justice. By asking a series of probing questions, the students engage in a deeper exploration of ethical principles and societal values.

Pedagogy: Practical Demonstration
Description: A hands-on approach where learners observe real-life applications of theories or skills. Practical demonstrations enhance comprehension, skill acquisition, and problem-solving abilities by bridging theoretical concepts with real-world scenarios.
Example: In a Food and Nutrition class, the instructor demonstrates the proper technique for filleting a fish. Students observe and then practice the skill themselves, learning the practical application of knife skills and culinary precision.

(Note: The examples provided in this annexure serve as illustrations of various pedagogies. It is important to understand that these pedagogies are versatile and can be applied across subjects in numerous ways. Feel free to adapt and explore these techniques creatively to enhance learning outcomes in your specific context.)
