AGA KHAN UNIVERSITY EXAMINATION BOARD

HIGHER SECONDARY SCHOOL CERTIFICATE

CLASS XII

ANNUAL EXAMINATIONS (THEORY) 2025

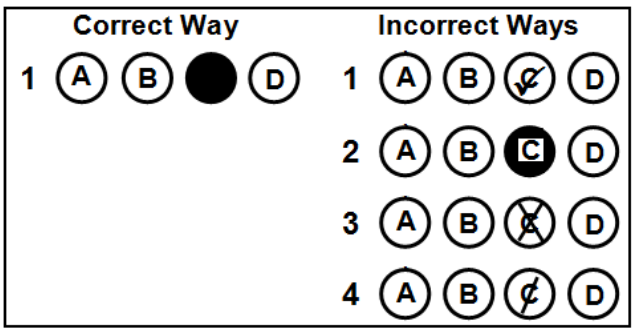

Ethics Paper I

Time: 55 minutes Marks: 30

AKU-EB Annual Examinations 2025 for Teaching & Learning only

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Read each question carefully.
2. Answer the questions on the separate answer sheet provided. DO NOT write your answers on the question paper.
3. There are 100 answer numbers on the answer sheet. Use answer numbers 1 to 30 only.
4. In each question, there are four choices A, B, C, D. Choose ONE. On the answer, grid black out the circle for your choice with a pencil as shown below.

Candidate's Signature

5. If you want to change your answer, ERASE the first answer completely with a rubber, before blacking out a new circle.
6. DO NOT write anything in the answer grid. The computer only records what is in the circles.

1. According to the concept of moral relativism, moral principles are based on

   A. facts.
   B. nature.
   C. culture.
   D. experiment.

2. The branch of ethics that deals with the conservation of natural resources to benefit all organisms on Earth is known as

   A. bio-ethics
   B. animal ethics.
   C. business ethics.
   D. environmental ethics.

3. The term, 'applied ethics' refers to the study of the

   A. causes of ethical issues.
   B. origin of ethical theories.
   C. creation of new ethical principles.
   D. ethical solutions of real-life issues.

4. Ethical implications in the health related issues is known as

   A. bio-ethics.
   B. work ethics.
   C. business ethics.
   D. environmental ethics.

5. A company is planning to use artificial intelligence (AI) to screen job applicants. However, the AI system could potentially discriminate against people of a certain community even though it is designed to optimise hiring efficiency.

   From Kantian perspective of good will and moral duty, the company should

   A. implement the AI system if it provides a disclaimer about potential biases.
   B. avoid using the AI system to ensure equal opportunity to all applicants.
   C. avoid using AI to choose a candidate of choice among others.
   D. implement the AI system as long as it benefits the company.

6. Talha, a 15 year old boy, came to know that one of his neighbourhood houses is on fire and people around there need help.

   According to Aristotle's theory of virtue, what should be the right and courageous action by Talha?

   A. Calling firefighter squad
   B. Instructing people to help
   C. Check firefighting measures at his house
   D. Getting into the house to extinguish fire by himself

Annual Examinations 2025 AKU-EB For Teaching & Learning only

7. Country X imports textile garments from Country Y where labour practices involve children, long working hours and low wages, but these practices are culturally accepted and legal.

From a moral relativist perspective, country X should

A. boycott trade with Country Y entirely.
B. impose its own labour practices on Country Y
C. respect the local labour practices of Country Y.
D. negotiate with Country Y to improve conditions.

8. Rudolf Otto's concept of the numinous in religious experience can be described as the

A. aspects of religion that can be explained through physical laws.
B. moral rules that guide human behaviour in religious traditions.
C. feeling of awe and fear on experiencing divinity.
D. religious goal to keep social order through rituals.

9. A moral value preached and practiced by Guru Nanak as a core teaching was

A. accumulating wealth as a sign of success in life.
B. forgiving others and showing mercy, even to those who wrong you.
C. fulfilling religious duties, even if it means neglecting people's rights.
D. prioritising personal fame and status over the welfare of the community.

10. Which of the following describes a birth ritual in Zoroastrianism?

A. Honey is placed in the baby's mouth with prayers.
B. The umbilical cord is buried with a prayer to safeguard the child.
C. A call to prayer is whispered in the new-born's ear to introduce them to faith.
D. Water is sprinkled over the new-born's head symbolising purification and entry into the faith.

11. Country X wants to use religious teachings to promote the welfare of its people.

To achieve this, the government can adopt all of the following steps EXCEPT that it

A. organises welfare projects based on religious values.
B. incorporates religious principles into legislation.
C. requires people to state their religious beliefs.
D. appoints religious leaders to public roles.

12. Shafeeq wants to integrate his religion into his daily life to enhance his personal well-being.

He can achieve this by

A. becoming actively involved in inter-faith dialogue campaigns.
B. following a meditation practice as part of physical exercise regularly.
C. being part of conflicting debates with people of other faith systems.
D. implementing spiritual teachings into his practices.

Annual Examinations 2025 AKU-EB for Teaching & Learning only

13. A benefit of inter-faith dialogue in today's society is that it

A. promotes mutual respect and understanding.
B reinforces division among different faith systems.
C. encourages to adopt a same set of religious practices.
D. increases competition in good deeds among different faiths.

14. All of the following depict the differences between scientific approach and religious approach EXCEPT the

A. beliefs about the origin of life.
B. focus on empirical evidence.
C. methods for data collection.
D. formation of day and nights.

15. The statement that reflects the origin of Hinduism is that it

A. evolved from the Abrahamic traditions of faith.
B. originated from ancient Greek philosophies and mythology.
C. originated as a monotheistic religion with a single God in Persia.
D. evolved from the fusion of Indus Valley traditions and Aryan practices.

16. One thing that makes Zoroastrianism different from Sikhism is that Zoroastrianism

A. promotes the worship of one god.
B. centres its teachings on the duality of good and evil.
C. emphasises personal relationship with the divine over rituals.
D. views universe as a battleground between two unequal opposing forces.

17. In their teachings, both the Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) and Jesus Christ emphasised

A. spiritualism over the worldly affairs.
B. love and compassion towards others.
C. use of force as a means of resolving conflicts.
D. strict social hierarchies in the governance structure.

18. Which of the following reflects the Islamic perspective on the origin of the universe?

A. It was created as part of a cosmic struggle between good and evil.
B. It was created in seven days, establishing divine order and purpose.
C. It is cyclically created and destroyed through natural processes.
D. It was created from a primordial matter called golden womb.

Annual AKU-EB Examinations 2025
for Teaching & Learning only

19. Read the given religious charity practices.

- Performed without expectation of reward
- Involves practical acts such as serving Langar
- Combines spiritual practice with service fostering humility

The given religious charity practices depict

A. Zakaat in Islam.
B. Seva in Sikhism.
C. Dana in Hinduism.
D. Tithing in Christianity.

20. The term 'social institution' refers to a/ an

A. set of laws to run the affairs of a state.
B. relationship between an individual and a state.
C. organisation formed for specific events or projects.
D. system that organises and regulates basic social needs.

21. During a team meeting, Riaz realises that he has made a mistake in the project that might cause a delay in the execution of the project.

In light of the given scenario, the action that reflects self-accountability is that Riaz should

A. ignore the mistake, hoping no one will notice.
B. accept the error when someone points it out.
C. blame a teammate to avoid responsibility.
D. admit his mistake and offer a solution.

22. Shafaq is examining the role of social institutions which are responsible for ensuring social order, creating laws and ensuring financial wellbeing of the people.

Based on the description, the social institutions that Shafaq is examining are

A. government and economy.
B. economy and education.
C. family and government.
D. education and family.

23. Amir notices that one of his team members has taken credit for the work he did not contribute to. Amir decides to give the credit back to the rightful contributor and inform the team leader of the situation.

By doing this, Amir is demonstrating the ethical work practice of

A. time management.
B. self-respect.
C. teamwork.
D. integrity.

Aman Ullah AKU-EB For Teaching & Learning Only Annual Examinations 2025

24. Jamal usually arrives late to work and is unable to meet deadlines.

The desirable ethical work practice that Jamal should follow is to

A. stay after office hours to complete the work.
B. request colleagues to complete his part of work.
C. demonstrate punctuality while reporting to office.
D. request management to readjust the reporting time.

25. Which of the following acts reflects the value of accountability in an employee?

A. Using office material in a leisurely manner
B. Acceptance of a mistake in the task performed
C. Managing to meet deadlines irrespective of means
D. Taking up additional responsibilities which compromise one's work

26. An organisation took up a project with a short deadline. To meet the requirements, the team had to stay late and work on off days.

If the organisation acknowledges the effort of the team, this would lead the employees in the organisation to

A. feel less inclined to take on additional responsibilities.
B. feel more motivated to contributing to the team's success.
C. become complacent, assuming its efforts will go unnoticed.
D. focus more on individual achievements rather than teamwork.

27. The hard work of Mother Teresa gave people the message of

A. patriotism.
B. universal love.
C. power of education.
D. empowering people.

28. South Africa is ensuring the continuation of the legacy of its great leader Nelson Mandela by

A. imposing economic sanctions to weaken conflicting nations.
B. advocating for military intervention to quickly resolve the conflict.
C. staying neutral and avoiding international legal or diplomatic involvement.
D. demanding justice through international courts against apartheid worldwide.

29. Muhammad Younus is renowned for his innovative approach to reducing poverty and empowering people in Bangladesh to become financially independent.

The same can be done by the government of Pakistan by

A. promoting donations without expecting repayment.
B. providing large loans to established businesses for expansion.
C. investing in major infrastructure projects to boost the economy.
D. giving small loans to low-income individuals to start businesses.

Annual Examinations 2025 AKU-EB for Teaching & Learning only

30. Abdul Sattar Edhi's significant contribution to the society is that he

A. fought for equality and ended racism.
B. promoted urban development and education reforms.
C. established hospitals for the sick and destitute through charity.
D. established a vast network of orphanages and shelters for the homeless.

AKU-EB
Annual Examinations 2025
for Teaching & Learning only

END OF PAPER

Please use this page for rough work

AKU-EB
Annual Examinations 2025
for Teaching & Learning only